1. What is Gank?

Gank is the term used in the game League of Legends and League of Legends. Gank is understood as the action of combining with teammates to approach and defeat the opponent, bringing advantages to your team. The process of Ganking usually takes place at the beginning of the match and in the middle of the game, and the person who normally ganks is the location of the next Jungle player and the position of the mid laner (Mid).

Successful Gank is when you and your teammates will coordinate smoothly to defeat the opponent without losing people. Or make the enemy use up all the complementary spells so his teammates can easily take advantage of later.

But if Gank is not careful, you or your teammates will die and give the advantage to the opponent.

Note when ganking:

- Always coordinate well with teammates in the road you are looking to gank.
- Stalk an appropriate opportunity to gank the most effective.
- Should gank the path where the opponent pushes the soldiers (creeps) up, so they will withdraw to the tower longer.
- Be assertive to deal with, not too close to the enemy tower when ganking.
- Always keep an eye on the mini map to observe the position of the jungler or their mid lane. Avoid the case of being ganked.

Those are the essential conditions that can help you gank successfully, giving advantages and winning for yourself.
