

What is dress code? Things you need to know

What is dress code and what is the important role it plays in everyday life?

Costumes in life are essential and important for anyone in any case or situation. Every day when you go out, you will always wonder what outfit you prepare today, how to wear for a meeting with partners, or what costume to hang out with friends, . Simple and everyday seem to form the general rule of clothing, which is Dress code. So let's learn more about Dress code in the article below.

1. The secret to choosing professional outfits for office workers in the summer
2. This is why successful people wear the same clothes only
3. What is 'cool'? New fashion style
4. 8 rules to help you dress up rules to become a true gentleman

What is dress code?

The word dress in English means clothes, costumes and codes are rules and rules. So dress code simply understands the dress code. Costume rules are also many cases, different situations and must be suitable for the wearer from style, appearance, . However, there are some basic rules of combining costumes that you read. Can also refer.

Dress code to go to work

1. Formal Dress

Working attire will follow a common workplace rule, often on important occasions such as high-class meetings and conferences. Costumes include suit, trousers, shirt and shoes.

2. Semi Formal

Semi Formal doesn't wear the same principles as Formal but still needs to be polite and luxurious. The set usually comes together including suits, shoes, trousers, shirts, . Often those who do business, meet customers.

3. Business Casual

This outfit is more comfortable, you can choose a variety of clothes, colors suitable for the workplace, combining casual pants, shirts, coats or skirts for office ladies .

4. Casual

The style of wear is suitable for most people, choosing outfits in the right environment, can be both suitable in the office environment and suitable for walking around.

5. Smart Casual

Wearing a combination of Casual and Business Casual, still create a elegant style but very comfortable.

Dress code for the party

For luxurious parties, the Black Tie style is very suitable, with men with luxurious suits, and women with luxurious dresses.

If the party does not need formal, you can wear more comfortable.

Hope this article was helpful to you!

You finished reading the article "What is dress code? Things you need to know" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.