What is Fame?

Fame is an English word when translated into Vietnamese meaning we can understand that it is fame, reputation . But high or low reputation is depending on the person's ability.

The reputation that the person has is made by the fans of that person. The higher the reputation, the higher the fan ratio. If more and more people know you, then your reputation will be bigger and vice versa.

What is Fame, fame, fame?

Surely among us everyone wants to be famous, popular and interested in their products especially those who make streamer or beauty bloggers, singers, actors . If they are famous thanks to my own strength is worth praising. But there are people who earn their fame not by their own strength but rely on the popularity of others as a stepping stone to push themselves up, earning lots of fame. In essence, this word is used to be sarcastic, satirizing someone who wants to be quickly popular. This phenomenon we often see in showbiz. They do so to catch the attention of the online community for greater fame.

Or there are people who make fame for themselves by being ridiculous, going back to culture, morality of people who follow the style - shock - sex to earn fame for themselves.

Thus, fame, fame or fame is no big deal if there are components for the word fame that can do all such bad things just to be famous.
