

What is Wscript.exe and can I delete wscript.exe?

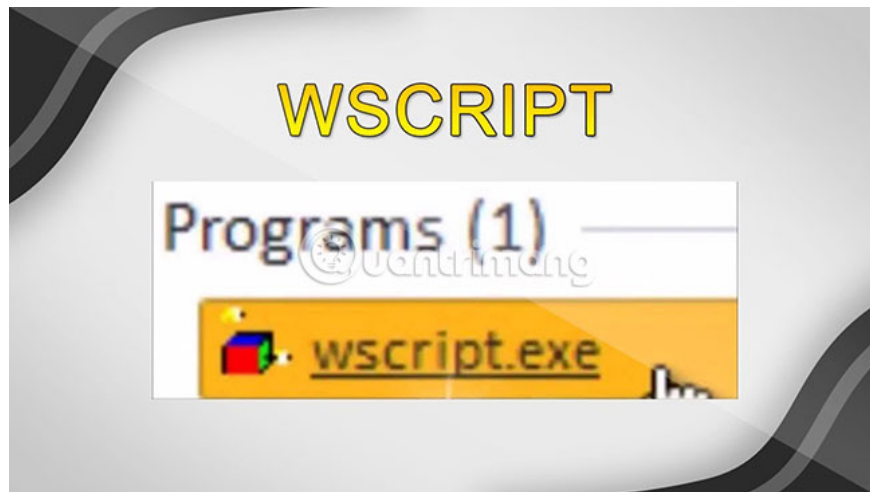

Wscript.exe is a legitimate file. This process is called Microsoft Windows Based Script Host and belongs to the software of Microsoft Windows operating system.

What is Wscript.exe?

Wscript.exe file is a factor in Microsoft Windows software. Windows is an operating system. Windows Script host is a service that provides scripting capabilities for Windows operating systems. Wscript.exe is tasked with executing VBScript files and does not cause any harm to the PC.

Wscript.exe is a legitimate file. This process is called Microsoft Windows Based Script Host and belongs to the software of Microsoft Windows operating system. Wscript.exe is developed by Microsoft and is usually stored in C: WindowsSystem32 . Malware creators or cybercriminals write different types of malicious programs, named wscript.exe, to damage the system's software and hardware.

Affected platform: Windows operating system.

How to check if the computer is infected with wscript.exe malware?

Malware creators try to infect many different types of malicious programs. Each type of malware designed to infect the system creates different problems and impacts. Users may notice changes after the system is infected with malware wscript.exe:

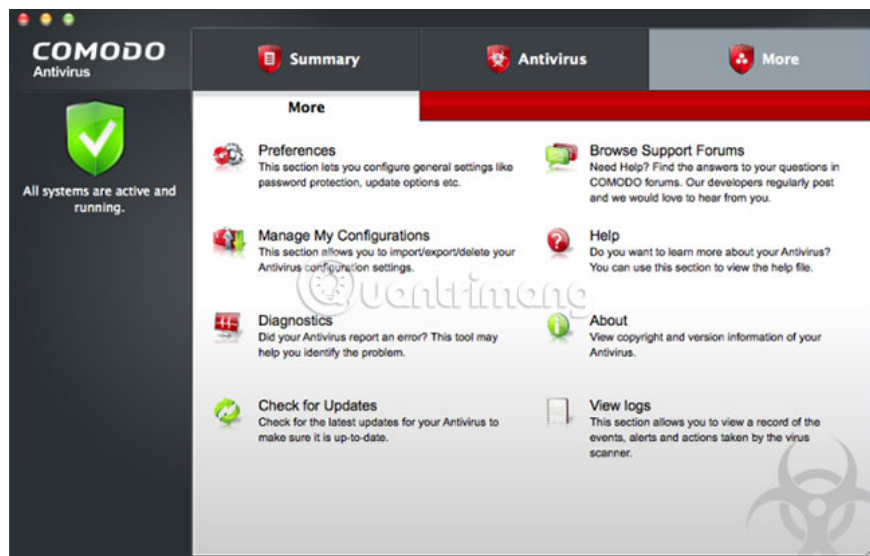

1. Internet connection is not stable

2. The wscript.exe file takes up a lot of CPU memory
3. Very low system performance
4. The system is redirected to some strange websites
5. The system receives some annoying pop-up ads
6. The system is often stalled
7. Pave the way for other malware to infect and corrupt the system or do the same to collect personal information of users

When one of these things happens, you can be sure that the system you are using is infected with wscript.exe malware. To confirm, go to the task manager by pressing Ctrl + Alt + Del and move to the Process tab, then right-click wscript.exe and open the location. If the location is subdirectory C: Windows\System32 files, the system is not affected by wscript.exe. If the file is located somewhere else, the system is affected by wscript.exe malware.

To remove the fake wscript.exe file, use the best, most reliable antivirus software to scan your computer, such as Comodo Antivirus.

How to remove wscript.exe from your system with Comodo Antivirus?

Step 1 : Download the program Comodo Antivirus.

Step 2 : The configuration settings frame will be displayed. Please select the configuration you want to apply.

Step 3 : After completing the network identification process, press the 'Close' button to launch the scan window.

Step 4 : Restart the PC.

Step 5 : It will take a while for Comodo Internet Security to update the antivirus program.

Step 6 : Conduct a quick scan automatically starting after the update process ends.

Step 7 : The threats found during the scan will be displayed on the warning screen.

Step 8 : Comodo Antivirus will remove wscript.exe virus and all other malicious software from your computer!

Hope you are succesful.

You finished reading the article "What is Wscript.exe and can I delete wscript.exe?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
