

What's different with IE10 on Windows Phone 8 Windows 8?

On the occasion of the Lumia 920, Lumia 820, HTC 8X sold in the US today (November 9), Microsoft compares the difference between Internet Explorer 10 on these two operating systems.

On the occasion of the Lumia 920, Lumia 820, HTC 8X sold in the US today (November 9), Microsoft compares the difference between Internet Explorer 10 on these two operating systems.

Internet Explorer 10 on Windows Phone 8 has a number of improvements such as a more intuitive interface, handling effects such as 3D conversion, parked shadows for both text and dialogs in web pages, and support for adding new fonts , including Web Open Font Format (WOFF) or TypeKit from Adobe.

About site layout, Internet Explorer 10 on Windows Phone 8 supports features such as multi-column, floating position, flexible box .

Internet Explorer 10 on Windows Phone 8 has many value improvements.

Compared to Internet Explorer 9 on Windows Phone 7.5, Internet Explorer 10 handles JavaScript four times faster, twice better HTML5 support, a real-time phishing website filter (SmartScreen) more powerful.

Test video of Internet Explorer 10 on Windows Phone 8:

However, Internet Explorer 10 of Windows Phone 8 does not support everything on Windows 8 version like inline video, multi-layer HTML5 audio, drag and drop APIs, ActiveX and VBScript, and lack of features like Website logo pins, preview links, connect users' websites to specific applications.

You finished reading the article "What's different with IE10 on Windows Phone 8 Windows 8?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
