So why don't you redirect the choice of Pokemon that are easier to catch at the initial stage, but still have remarkable power? We will easily catch them, use less effort and money to catch them. And the power after evolution has increased dramatically. So what types of Pokemon are easy to catch and powerful enough to nurture and evolve?

1. Pokemon Eevee:

Topping the list is the type of Pokemon Eevee can evolve into any 3 types of Pokemon and adapt to any environment.

In terms of catch angle, Eevee is not the type that can be caught easily. However, the level 25 requirement to evolve Eevee is quite simple, and it can become the core Pokemon in your team. Try going around work and try your luck.

Skills combination you should try:

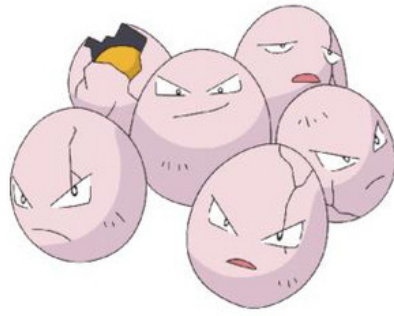

Vaporeon water system : Water gun + Aqua Tail or Hydrp Pump. Water Gun is always in the Top 1 in water skills. Aqua Tail only consumes no power but can create 50 damage. Hydrp Pump creates greater damage than Aqua Tail, but the amount of energy consumed also multiplies.

Flareon : Ember + Flame Throw, this is also the basic skill set of fire.

Lightning system Jolteon : Thunder Shock + Thunder Blot or Thunder. Although the damage is only 5, the attack speed is very fast, and because of the nature of lightning, it is easy to move this Pokemon after avoiding the skill. Therefore, Pokemon lightning system is often based on the speed of the attack, the ability to evade then throw skills to finish off the opponent.

2. Pokemon Exeggutor:

Second is Exeggutor. Exeggutor is the evolution of Pokemon Exeggcute. This Pokemon is said to be easy to catch and also has power. They only evolved 1 level, but the power increased dramatically, the CP can reach 1700+. This type of Pokemon will give you a blow that makes your opponent's water system or poison system have endless headaches.

Skills combination you should try:

Confusion + Petal Blizzard is considered to be Top 2 in terms of damage. With a high level of damage, however, this skill set does not cost Exeggutor too much energy. Combining this skill with a fast attack speed is quite appropriate.

3. Pokemon Slowbro:

Slowbro is the evolutionary level of Pokemon Slowpoke after reaching level 37. Pokemon Slowbro belongs to the Water system and Supernatural system. They can learn the Water Gun skill of the Water system. You can go to areas with water to meet this type of Pokemon.

Skills combination you should try:

Water Gun + Psychic: This skill set is mainly used to swing many enemies, while being powerful when expanding the attack area is also very positive.

4. Pokemon Starmie:

This type of Pokemon is the evolutionary level of Pokemon Staryu. Starmie will only appear at water, lake, pond, and water areas. Starmie's evolutionary ability is at an average level but after evolution, the CP will double.

They can learn the powerful Water Gun skill, and in the skill stack can choose 3 skills without the same high level of damage.

Skills combination you should try:

Water Gun + Psychic or Hydrp Pump or Ice Beam.

Water Gun is a skill belonging to the Top 1 in the water system, the attack speed is very fast, the damage is quite high. In order to perform the ultimate attack skill, a large amount of damage comes from Hydrp Pump, with 60 damage along with a large attack area. Starmie is a Pokemon that is extremely good at Pidgeot at an early stage.

5. Pokemon Pidgeot:

When level 36, Pidgeotto will evolve to 2nd level Pidgeot. The Pidgeot is classed as Pokemon with a fast flying speed. The process of evolving this type of Pokemon to level 3 is also simple and does not cost Candy or Stardust. The Pidgeot has greater power than Butterfree and Beedrill is one rank, with 60 damage from the flying advantage of the Hurricane.

Skills combination you should try:

Wing Attack + Hurricane is a common skill set for Pidgeot, 12 damage, ranking 2nd in skill sets. This Pokemon's attack speed is extremely fast. Hurricane is the highest damage skill of flying Pokemon, combined with Wing Attack's speed, makes this skill set very scary.

Wish you all have strong Pokemon!
