

Youtube Kids was officially present in Vietnam, invited to download and experience

Different from the Youtube Kids version APK or the foreign version that many parents have downloaded before, the official Youtube Kids for Vietnam has the main language is Vietnamese to help increase the ability of children to understand.

Youtube Kids is Google's video viewer application with selected content to ensure children watch safe and age-appropriate videos on YouTube. This application has been released for a while but is officially available in Vietnam on both Android and iOS platforms.

Youtube Kids in Vietnam has no advertising, age-appropriate content. Different from the Youtube Kids version APK or the foreign version that many parents have downloaded before, the official Youtube Kids for Vietnam has the main language is Vietnamese to help increase the ability of children to understand. However, only the version for Android does this well, and the iOS version is still mostly English videos.
